SHAW UNIVERSITY

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA 27611

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Class of 1980:

The high quality of this year's Shaw University Bear Yearbook is certainly indicative of the strides that Shaw University has taken and is taking to insure quality education for its students.

This past academic year, carefully planned steps have been taken to insure a successful future for the University, its students and alumni. The period might be characterized as one of planning, management and evaluation. These activities have resulted in the major restructuring of the University; the implementation of systematic procedures for a thorough accounting of the University's revenue; the adoption of new focus in the objectives of the University; the expansion of the campus through the acquisition of more land and property; the increase in the number and the ability of the student body and a significant increase in the training, experience and proportion of members of the faculty with terminal degrees.

The academic ship has, indubitably, been turned in the right direction. Inflation and the high cost of living dictate stormy seas ahead, but courage, determination and hard work on the part of the whole academic crew will certainly facilitate the safe arrival of this ship with its important cargo--the future leaders of tomorrow of a society in dire need for a more highly trained and educated citizenry.

With the continued help, cooperation and support of all members of The Shaw Family, particularly its students, Shaw's goal of becoming one of the outstanding institutions of higher education in these United States will certainly be attained.

Sincerely yours,

Stanley H. Smith
President

THE LAST GOODBYE

Memories cling to me like a child
I remember days so warm and mild
Events that time will never erase
Our class a smile upon each face
A senior picnic in the shade
Visions of our Homecoming parade
These moments stroll through my mind as I stand on the graduation line
Don't forget the friends we've made or promises of our future dreams portrayed
Many memories I'll hold so dear with each of you so far yet near
As we stand on the graduation line
This is a moment in ourselves we must find
The road that will lead us into tomorrow, for parting is such a sweet sorrow
The time has come for us to leave
Diplomas and congratulations we will receive
Remember this day now and forever
It might be our last time together
Eager to depart as we all might be
Sorrow touched a little in you and me
As we march from the graduation line
deep down inside of me I find
It's going to make me cry
Knowing for some it's our last goodbye

Sweeping the bubbles from the face of the water,

They show no envy,

MARSHA

Ms. Marsha Taylor, A Junior, holds the title "Miss Shaw University" for the academic year 79-80. She was born under the tenth zodiac sign, Capricorn. This could be one of the reasons for her ambitious urges. This rising senior is a member of the Student Government Association and has been a majorette in the marching band since her freshman year (1977-1980). She is currently head majorette.

During her Sophomore year, Marsha served as class president. Her outside interest includes marching, sewing and sports, but her main interest is "dealing with people." Marsha regards the title "Miss Shaw University" as a golden opportunity and expresses gratitude. This outstanding young lady is a Biology major and a native of Portsmouth, VA. May God be with her as she journeys through the paths of life—guide and direct her.

MESSAGE FROM THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
PRESIDENT 1979-80

On behalf of the Shaw University Student Government Association 1979-80 I would like to extend greetings to my fellow students and a warm congratulations to the class of 1980 (Graduates). Indeed it has been a long journey up the ladder of higher education here at Shaw University. For some, our education will stop but for others the journey has only begun. We are now leaving this training environment and are moving into the mainstream of American society. And as the song puts it "Only the Strong shall survive". The determined and the committed survived the test that was put before them by Shaw University. We must realize that we are the future leaders and builders of tomorrow and we must take our rightful place in society. For we have learned that without question Shaw University Pro Christo Et Humanitate (For Christ and Humanity). We believe that religion and education walk hand in hand. Shaw University has provided us with the family concept (The Shaw Family "Bear") of love, education and prosperity. Shaw has provided the training for us to do anything with nothing, and the impossible with a little. As alumni of Shaw we must continue to support this institution morally, physically, and most of all financially. No matter where our life carriers us, let us not forget that Shaw has taught us to walk among kings and queens and not loose the common touch of dealing with everyday people.

To the class of 1980, I dare you to continue to move upward and never give up. Continue to carry the name of Shaw University with dignity, pride, love and respect throughout this nation.

Most of all I thank each of you for the opportunity to serve as your president and for your support which added to a successful and prosperous year for all.

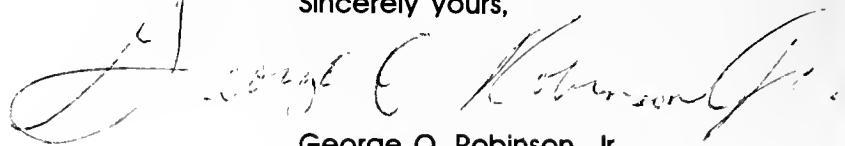

In the end, let us thank God for Shaw University, remembering that She has given us a chance to pave the road for others. Thank you and may God bless each and everyone of you.

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR EDITOR-IN-CHIEF:

WE, THE YEARBOOK STAFF, ARE INDEED GRATEFUL FOR YOUR SERVICES RENDERED OVER THE YEARS. POSSESSING REMARKABLE DRIVE AND AMBITION, YOU STUCK WITH IT WHEN THE GOING GOT TOUGH AND ENABLED US TO SEE THE LIGHT. YOU SHOWED US THAT WORK CAN BE FUN. EVEN THOUGH WE WENT THROUGH ROUGH SPOTS AND SHARED MANY LAUGHS TOGETHER, WE GOT THE JOB DONE. AND WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU! ON BEHALF OF THE ENTIRE STAFF, WE LOVE YOU AND WILL TRULY MISS YOU. KEEP STRIVING FOR BETTER THAN THE BEST—REACH FOR THE SKY, FOR THE SKY'S THE LIMIT. WITH YOUR MENTALITY AND A DEGREE IN YOUR HAND, YOU CAN CONTRIBUTE SIGNIFICANTLY TO THE WORLD. BEAR THESE THINGS IN MIND AND YOU'RE SURE TO GAIN SUCCESS. ONCE AGAIN—WE LOVE YOU!

THE BEAR STAFF
1979-80

To say or to imply that education is important in today's highly technological society is an understatement. To live happily and successfully in the future will require an education.

Shaw University has and will continue to contribute to our future. Training students to live in today's world is not the first concern. Rather, helping to prepare students to meet the demands, responsibilities, and opportunities of the future is the first. Thus, intelligence plus character will result.

The mind and emotions of a TRUE Shaw University student is always active, and constantly seeking to communicate effectively, to make decisions, to relate well to others, to accept responsibility and to cope with and adapt to change.

It is for that reason, that Shaw is not just a university, but an institution that is, "UNIQUE IN ITS' OWN SPECIAL WAY."

Shaw has been and still is about the best thing that has happened to most of its enrollees. Consequently, she is loved with a sentimental, romantic, sincere . . . love.

We are proud of you!
And May God Bless and Keep You.
Love,
Mom & Dad

It is fitting on this "Graduation Day" that we should give a special welcome to you, Elton. For you are, in a sense, the raw material in the Science of Education. In welcoming you we exhort you to make the most of your present opportunities, for what you do with these years of preparation will determine the remainder of your course of life.

And this points up the greatest truth of all. You should not be content merely to accumulate knowledge. You should seek to perceive that knowledge until it becomes wisdom; wisdom is the ability to use aright the knowledge that you possess. Such is impossible unless you season your knowledge with faith. And faith involves religion. No person can be said to be truly educated without an experiential knowledge of Jesus Christ.

So as you increase your knowledge, be sure that you go on growing in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus you are not only acquiring the wisdom of men, but, most of all, the wisdom of God.

ALMA MATER

Hall, Dear Old Shaw U
Thy sons revere thy name,
Long shall thy works be proud,
Undimmed thy fame,
Time shall thy praises sing,
Glory repay thy tears,
And loud thy praises ring
Through all the Years.

Noble thy hallways,
Noble thy grassy plain,
Nobler the hearts of men
Where thou dost reign
All we who love thy name
Stout hearts that shall not fail,
All rise and loud proclaim,
Alma Mater, Hall!

A high-contrast, black and white abstract pattern consisting of large, organic, wavy shapes that resemble stylized leaves or petals. The shapes are rendered in a thick, solid black ink on a white background. The pattern is centered and covers most of the frame, with some white space at the top and bottom. The overall effect is reminiscent of mid-century modern design or a minimalist graphic print.
